The spirit of Hallowe'en began to-day to develop the city.

Decorations in windows appeared, boys and girls were cutting out pumpkins and Hallowe'en designs, and there was talk around every school about the big Town Criers Hallowe'en party which is to be given Saturday night.

Though there will be socials and dances for the grown-ups, there will be nothing to rival the boys and girls Hallowe'en parade and movie to be held at the Auditorium. The streets are expected to be lined at 7:30 tomorrow night to see the parade of the boys and girls, before they go to the Auditorium.

It was announced today by the Town Criers committee that a band will lead the parade. The movies to be shown will be the best that there are and a remembrance will be given to every boy and girl in the Auditorium.

Can Make Rules
It was made plain by the committee that every boy and girl who wants to see the big show in the Auditorium must be in the parade. Most of the boys and girls will wear some Hallowe'en decorations or costumes, or carry a pumpkin or jack-o'-lantern, but it is not necessary for a boy and girl to be in costume to be in the parade or to see the show. All they have to do is to be in the parade.

There will be no limit on the amount of noise that may be made during the parade. All sorts of whistles and horns are expected to be carried by the boys and girls. Several hundred school pupils will march. The high school students are going to Mendenhall Saturday afternoon where the high school team plays football, and the high school students expect to have a big celebration or their victory in the parade.

The following places of assembly were announced by C. F. Bolt, grand marshal of the parade:

Will school children, on school grounds: William Moore school pupils at fire hall, St. Mary's and Wachter school children at the vacant lot north of the Auditorium, and the grade school pupils going to the high school building, at fire hall.

Will co-operate with Criers
Daughters of Isabella will co-operate Saturday evening with the Town Criers Hallowe'en frolic, postponing their party to be given that evening at the Wachter school. The party at the Wachter school will be held Monday evening instead.COL. McLAUGHLIN,
INDIAN AGENT, IS
GUEST IN CITY

Col. James McLaughlin, of the interior department, Washington, D. C. was a guest of friends in the city on Wednesday. Col. McLaughlin is the chief of the Indian inspectors for the United States government, and has been visiting all of the Indian agencies throughout the country, coming to the city from Standing Rock reservation, Fort Yates, and going to Fort Totten, near Devils Lake from here.

Col. McLaughlin has been in the Indian service of the government for 30 years, and is probably the oldest Indian agent in point of service. He was for many years stationed at Standing Rock agency, and is well known to the older residents of Bismarck, who welcomed him. After visiting Fort Totten, Col. McLaughlin will return east by way of St. Paul, Minn. where he expects to meet Mrs. McLaughlin, who is now a guest of her brother in that city.

AN ANNONCEMENT

Under the present newspaper law, newspapers published in Burleigh county are to be voted upon for the official paper for the ensuing two years. The names of the candidate papers will be found at the foot of the general ballot and the voters of this county are to vote for only one paper.

The Bismarck Tribune appears on the ballot with the other newspapers published in Burleigh county. It takes this occasion to ask the support of the voters.

Voters are entitled to know some of the facts in connection with The Tribune's candidacy. This paper has the largest net paid circulation of any paper in the county. It is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulation, an organization which maintains offices in Chicago and employs a large staff of auditors whose business it is to carefully check circulation records and determine the circulation of daily and weekly newspapers.

Every daily or weekly of any standing is a member of this bureau, because advertisers base their rates solely upon the rating given by this organization. None of the opponent papers in Burleigh county is a member of this organization. Their circulations are not audited, nor does the federal law require them as it does daily newspapers to publish their circulation figures under oath.

The Tribune twice every year files with the local postoffice a sworn statement of its circulation. These are on file with Postmaster Reed and interested voters can easily have access to them.

No paper published in the county has as large a circulation or can give the service The Tribune can in the publication of official notices. It costs the tax payers no more money to have their legal notices published in The Tribune than it would in some obscure weekly whose only hope for existence is in being selected a legal paper and securing the revenue from such business.

The selection of an official newspaper for Burleigh county is purely a business proposition. Voters should select their official paper as they do a paper in which to place their church notices, lodge announcements, and the hundreds of other notices of gatherings which the daily paper gives publicity to for the most part without charge because it is the function of a newspaper to give its readers this service. The daily newspaper is selected by advertisers and readers alike because it reaches the most people.

Some interested persons are spreading the propaganda that the legal newspaper must be a weekly newspaper. That is false. Any newspaper which has second class mailing privileges is eligible for official paper.

The Tribune through this announcement urges its readers to support it for the official paper. We are all vitally interested in the growth and prosperity of our county. During the more than forty years of its service to this community, The Tribune has worked for the upbuilding of the county and has given freely of its space and effort for every laudable undertaking.

Let us have your co-operation in this matter to the end that we may serve you even better than before.

MEETING TODAY
HONOR ROTARY
IN OPEN FORUM

Speakers Tell of Work of Organization and Discuss Betterment of City

The Rotary club was "introduced" at the open forum luncheon of the Commercial club this afternoon.

C. F. Young, president of the Commercial club, presided at the luncheon and introduced the speakers.

Fred L. Conklin, president of the Rotary club, spoke of the first year's work of the Bismarck Rotary club. He told of the growth of Rotary throughout the world. There are 700 clubs in the United States and for foreign countries, with a membership of over 60,000. He spoke of the earnest purpose of the club, its message of service and its accomplishments.

G. F. Dullman spoke of the necessity of strong organization to promote civic enterprises and burying factional differences to combine in this effort.

Mr. Ulrich, of Fargo, discussed the proposed Lutheran college which he said would be erected in Bismarck, the logical place for it.

Sixty Bismarck business men gathered at the "introduction luncheon" for the Rotary club. The general subject of the luncheon talks was "Bismarck—My City."

SOCIALISTS IN NEW YORK ASK
POLLS GUARDED

New York, Oct. 29.—Declaring that he had good information "that all kinds of violations of the law from mere technicalities to the buying of votes, stealing of ballots and deliberate spoiling of ballots by election officials" would be resorted to in four congressional districts here next Tuesday, Julius Gerber, executive secretary of the New York county organization of the Socialist party today called upon Attorney-General Frazier in a letter to "see that the election be carried on in accordance with the law."

"In the election of 1918," he wrote, "during the canvass of the vote on election day the lights were turned off and the polling places left in darkness and while the lights were out ballots cast for the Socialist candidates were stolen and either substituted by others marked for the fusion candidate or the ballots were missing."

DULUTH POLICE
CHIEF ON TRIAL

Duluth, Oct. 29.—With the selection of a jury completed, the trial of John Murphy, former Duluth police chief, began today. Murphy, former deputy United States marshal, and nine other defendants in the second liquor conspiracy case opened in United States district court today on a charge of transporting liquor known to have been smuggled into this country. Murphy and Bradley were acquitted yesterday of a similar charge.

ELECTION PARTY FOR PEOPLE OF CITY

An "election party" will be given for the people of Bismarck by the Town Criers and Bismarck Tribune.

Election returns will be shown on a big canvas which will hang on the side of the Lucas store, on Broadway, just off of Fourth street, and will be shown on the screen from a window above Hoskins' store.

All arrangements are in the hands of the Town Criers. The Tribune will cooperate by offering use of wire facilities.

Everybody will be invited. The returns will be chiefly on the national situation, because of the lateness of the closing of polls in the state. Present plans call for the starting of the "party" at 9 p. m.

BUDDIES ASKED TO CALL TOWNLEY
BOYCOTT BLUFF

Williston, N. D., Oct. 23, 1920.

Dear Buddy:
No doubt you have recently read how Mr. A. C. Townley has made the threat to run out of the state anyone voting against him.

I don't know of any ex-service man who doesn't want the other fellow to get a square "shake-up." If you do you surprise me. We got rid of one "All Highest Kaiser" on the other side, and whether or not you believe in A. C. Townley's teachings you owe it to the other fellow to give him a square deal.

Any one of you fellows would call a bluff: now, here's a great bluff. Let's call it by voting the Independent Ticket, thereby knocking this would-be "All Highest Kaiser" on this side and give him a chance to run us out. Let's go fellows.

Yours truly,
OF MENNDRO.

IN BALL GAME

New York, Oct. 29.—To avoid confusion that might arise from the Nebraska and Rutgers football eleven wearing uniforms of their identical colors, the Rutgers players will wear black jerseys next Tuesday. Some of the patriotic Rutgers students raised strenuous objections but became reconciled when Coach Sanford urged that the visiting team could not be expected to abandon its colors.

RELATIVES OF
POLICE FIGHT

Resist Efforts of British Police to Divert Lord Mayor's Body From Dublin

EXCITEMENT REIGNS

Funeral Party Dragged From Car as Body is Placed on Steamer

Queenstown, Ireland, Oct. 29.—The body of Terence MacSwiney, late Lord Mayor of Cork, was landed here today from the steamer Rathmore. It was received by the urban council and thousands of the city's inhabitants. A draft of armed troops were present.

Holyhead, Wales, Oct. 29.—When day-broke this morning over the Irish sea the steamer Rathmore, bearing the body of the late Terence MacSwiney, was steaming south off the Welsh headlands on its way to Cork. At the same hour the relatives of MacSwiney, who refused to board the special steamer, were on their way to Dublin. Shipment of the body was preceded by a violent scene, in which blows were struck and members of the Lord Mayor's family dragged from the railway coach at the Holyhead railway station. They refused to consent to the government's plan to take the body to Cork instead of Dublin.

At Crews, on the way from London to Holyhead, a letter signed by Sir Haymar Greenwood, secretary for Ireland and addressed to the widow of the late Mayor, was delivered to the train. It said that the landing of the body in Dublin might lead to a demonstration and that it would be permitted only to go to Cork. It also offered the Mayor's and 20 friends passage on the steamer, which was to carry the body.

Police at Train
When the train arrived here near midnight a cordon of police was formed around the platform entrances, keeping back a good-sized crowd of curious persons who bowed and jeered. Mr. O'Brien, London executive of the Irish self-determination league who represented the family on the funeral train, demanded that the station master fulfill the contract to carry the body to Cork by way of Kingstown, a port near Dublin. A conference followed and the station master was arranging for the transference of the body and mourners of the body by Kingstown when an official entered and said the superintendent of police wanted to speak with him.

Order Given
When he returned he said: "My orders are that the body must be placed on board the Rathmore for shipment to Cork and they will be obeyed."

Deputy Mayor O'Callaghan, of Cork, shaking his finger in the station master's face, said: "You and your government are body-snatchers. You are going to seize a dead body and we refused to accompany you and your nefarious expedition."

Cry "Body-Snatchers"
The station master went to the baggage car where the mourners were grouped around the coffin and ordered it removed to the steamer. Annie and Marie MacSwiney, sisters of the dead mayor, cried defiantly: "You have murdered our brother and you are not going to arrest his body."

The mourners refused to allow the porters to touch the casket and a police officer ordered the former to leave the car. They declined and constables, who had been called, forcibly dragged some of the male mourners from the car. They struck at the police, who drew their clubs while women shrieked.

"Body-snatchers! Shame!"
They also fought the police who were ejecting them. During the melee Mrs. MacSwiney claimed the police knocked them down. The mourners were then herded to one side the body placed on a truck and closely guarded by police. It was wheeled to the steamer. It was picked up by a crane and was slung over the steamer.

Farmers Eager to Hear O'Connor's Constructive Ideas for Upbuilding of State of North Dakota—Fargo and Grand Forks to Have Great Rallies.

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 29.—Tremendous receptions are being received by J. F. T. O'Connor, anti-Townley, anti-Socialist candidate for Governor, in the closing days of his campaign throughout central and eastern North Dakota.

Completing his 180th speech of the campaign, in which he has given the people of every community of North Dakota a chance to see him, hear him and question him, Mr. O'Connor is winding up his campaign full of confidence.

Chairman Hays Says It Will Eclipse all Former Records in Country

New York, Oct. 29.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, today issued a statement saying an official Republican survey indicated Harding and Coolidge would receive the greatest popular majority ever cast in a presidential election.

"We are approaching the end of this campaign," he said. "On the part of the Republican it has been predicated on the revival of patriotism in this country."

"It has had for a main purpose the re-establishment of an economic and efficient administration of the country's government. The Democratic strategy in this campaign has desperately sought to escape due responsibility for Democratic extravagance, autocracy and failure to solve any of the domestic problems."

COX IN OHIO

Youngstown, O., Oct. 29.—Governor Cox brought his campaign back to his home state today, beginning with a morning speech here. He was to speak at Kent this afternoon and tonight at Akron.

In his Akron speech tonight Governor Cox plans to reply to Senator Harding's speech Tuesday night in the same city. In his speech Senator Harding declared he was not the candidate of any clique or combination but that he was unpledged and unbiased.

Governor Cox made public a letter from Herbert Bittler, of Dayton, a war veteran, contributing money to be used in distributing copies of the covenant of the league of nations.

WILSON GIVES
COX APPROVAL
IN A MESSAGE

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Wilson today wrote Governor Cox expressing his confidence in the Democratic presidential nominee.

The President said that by Mr. Cox's success "we may carry the policy of the national government forward along the path of liberal legislation and humane reform until the whole world again sees an illustration of the wholesome strength of Democracy and the happy fruits of what the founders of what the republic proposed when they set this great government up."

The President said he had followed Governor Cox's course throughout the campaign with admiration and expressed the belief that the Governor would receive the emphatic endorsement of the voters of the country.

BRITISH TAKE
SOVIET CARGO

London, Oct. 29.—British warships have seized and taken to Batumi, the Italian steamer Ancona, bound for Novorossiysk with a cargo for Soviet Russia, as a Moscow dispatch to the Daily Herald, organ of labor, it is claimed this action is a gross violation of international law, there being no blockade of Black Sea ports at present.

JAMESTOWN PEOPLE SAY THEY WILL NOT BE COWED BY THREATS OF BIG
BOSS TO DRIVE THEM OUT OF STATE

Jamestown, Oct. 29.—People of Jamestown and Stutsman county who dare to oppose the rule of Townleyism are not cowed by the threats of the big boss to drive them out of the state. They are pasting stickers about saying:

"We are not afraid of Townley's threats. We are American citizens and will remain here."

They also referred to the statement of Governor Frazier in a speech, in which he said:

"Any one who does not approve our program is an undesirable citizen and the sooner he sells out and leaves the state the better."

Townley told the people of Jamestown at a meeting that if he was defeated his followers would not spend a "damn cent" in the city. Another time Townley said:

"If I, after the smoke of battle has cleared away, after Nov. 2, find out that you by your vote have helped defeat me, I am coming back here to see that not one of you fellows will be left here in town."

Townley, it is said, is coming back to Jamestown Saturday night.

FARMERS GIVE
ANTI-TOWNLEY
MEN WELCOME

Schoolhouse Meetings in Burleigh County Bring Out a Good Spirit

CONTRAST IN METHODS

Sniping Campaign of "Boss" Prater Not Approved by the League Farmers

A contrast in political methods today stands out in the political campaign in Burleigh county.

On the one hand, anti-Townley forces are asking a frank and open fight. Schoolhouse meetings are held in every section of the county, where a discussion of the issues is made by competent speakers.

On the other hand, the distribution of anonymous circulars put out by the league continues. They bear no authority, contain no argument, but are simply designed to create doubt, prejudice and stir class hatred.

Leaders of the anti-Townley campaign are more than pleased with the schoolhouse meetings. In spite of the strenuous efforts made by the league leaders to prevent league farmers from hearing or believing anything on the opposition side, the farmers of the county have attended the meetings, listened intently and in nearly every case have invited the speakers to return.

Prater's Sniping Methods

While the farmers have been anxious to hear the anti-Townley speakers, however, "Homebuilder Bill" Prater, boss of the league in Burleigh county, has carried on a "sniping" campaign. At nearly every meeting several statehouse employees have appeared to heckle the anti-Townley speakers and try to break up the meetings. They have been bolder in some than in others. Their own tactics, typical of the class hatred regime of Townleyism, are believed to have lost them many votes.

One of the strong points of the anti-Townley ticket in Burleigh county is its legislative quartet. Senator Victor Anderson, L. E. Heston and Harold Semling for the house of representatives. Three are farmers of known reputation and wide friendships and the fourth is an experienced man who was wounded in France.

That Secret Caucus Pledge
The Townley candidates have been endeavoring in more than one place when confronted with a photographic record of the secret caucus pledge which the candidates for the legislative sign in violation of their oath of office. One of these candidates, C. O. Kell, became angry when this question was raised by an anti-Townley speaker and demanded that right be had to see that he (Kell) had signed the pledge.

"I right now charge that you did sign it," Mr. Kell, the speaker said. "You may deny or affirm it. I'll take your word."

And Kell would neither deny nor affirm it.

The anti-Townley committee is making every effort to give information concerning the ballot and the proper way to vote. Because it will be necessary to vote in more than one column to vote the anti-Townley ticket every voter is urged to study a sample ballot before going to the polls.

Threats about the city by league leaders, which evidently is so false that no one will assume responsibility for it, is that a vote for the initiated measures would kill the homebuilding association. The statement is made in spite of the wide authority of the association to issue and sell bonds.

BRITISH COAL
STRIKE PLAN
A COMPROMISE

London, Oct. 29.—Newspapers here in commenting on the agreement which the coal strike may be ended if their referendum to be held by the miners results in a favorable vote, regard the settlement as a compromise. Neither the advocates of the miners nor the representatives of the owners of the coal pits claimed victory. There is universal approval of the arrangement by which a sliding scale would apply to the pockets of the men and as well as the wages of the owners. This is thought the most hopeful feature of the agreement. For this reason it is believed the plan will be endorsed by the miners.

WOMEN AND MEN
WARNED TO MARK
THEIR BALLOTS

Cautioned Also Not to Sign the Ballots or Deposit any Sample Ballots at Booths

The Joint Campaign committee has issued the following warning from the Fargo office.

"Townleyites are telling independent women everywhere that they must sign their ballots on election day and that they cannot vote in more than one column, this will keep many from voting. Also it is reported that Nonpartisan canvassers are peddling an exact imitation of official ballots marked and ready to deposit in ballot box on election day. Guard against defeat by this trickery and fraud. Tell all workers and election officials to warn women not to sign ballots and to prevent the use of ballots that do not have inspectors' initials and stamp in proper place and put on in presence of election judges."

LADD TALKS ON FOOD CONDITIONS

Dr. E. F. Ladd, candidate for United States senator spoke in Bismarck at the Auditorium last night. He spoke mainly on food problems, problems of distribution and hoarding.

During the course of his talk, he declared the plan set forth by J. F. T. O'Connor, fusion ticket candidate for Governor, in solving the farmers' market problem, in which Mr. O'Connor urged the farmers to associate their own market products.

The lower floor was filled and there were about 15 in the balcony.

IRISH UNIFORM DISCLOSED AT MAYOR'S RITES

Officers Remove Coats, Showing Green Army Uniforms—Thousands at Church

WIDOW CANNOT ATTEND

London, Oct. 28.—A pontifical requiem mass was celebrated this morning in St. George's cathedral over the body of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, Terence MacSwiney. Church dignitaries, the Lord Mayor of Dublin, the deputy Lord Mayor of Cork, deputations representing the British parliamentary labor party and various Irish political and civic organizations attended.

Thousands of persons thronged every available space in the large cathedral, scores standing on chairs in the aisles straining for a glimpse of the casket. The casket rested on a catafalque with four officers wearing the uniform of the Irish Republican army standing motionless as the guard of honor.

The casket was surmounted by wreaths and the hats which the Lord Mayor formerly wore as commandant of the Cork brigade of the volunteer army. The breast-plate of the coffin bore an inscription in Gaelic reading:

"Murdered by the foreigner in Brixton prison, London, Oct. 25, the fourth of the Republic. Aged 49 years. God have mercy on his soul."

Widow Collapsed. In the front pews reserved for the family and official delegations there was one figure missing, the Lady Mayor, who collapsed this morning from the strain and anxiety, and was unable to be present.

Just as the services were beginning the four men who with their comrades had been guarding the body throughout the night were relieved by a quartet wearing long coats which they took off as they stepped to their places exposing the uniform of the Irish Republican army.

"The Terror is Coming"

SLIGHT SETBACK MADE IN WHEAT

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Bearish contentions that the farm strike had not developed to the extent which had been looked for did a good deal apparently to bring about a new setback in wheat prices. Delay in Irish strike settlement negotiations counted also as a depressing factor. There was talk, too, of a possible large import of wheat from Canada opening prices which ranged from one to 3 1-2 cents lower were followed by a moderate rally and then by a fresh sag.

Subsequently official announcement of the settlement of the British coal strike led to a sharp advance. The market closed unsettled 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents higher.

MINERS BALLOT ON STRIKE END

London, Oct. 28.—The strike of coal miners throughout England and Wales was settled this afternoon by the settlement of the contingent on a ballot of miners, Frank Hodges, a member of the miners' executive body announced.

"We have got terms from the government which the executive is submitting to a ballot of the men for their judgment. The executive is recommending their adoption as a temporary measure until a national wage board is established."

SIBERIAN GOVT PLAN BLOCKED

Peking, China, Oct. 28.—Efforts of the mission from the far eastern Republic of Siberia to lease a private residence in this city for headquarters have been blocked by the Chinese government, according to reliable information. Contract for the building was on the point of being closed when the government intervened.

JOHNNY EVERS TO HANDLE CUBS

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Johnny Evers will manage the Chicago nationals next season it was announced by William Veck, president of the club. Evers will succeed Fred Mitchell. He now is in Cuba with the New York Giants.

COLLECTION OF RAIL BILLS IS CONTROVERTED

Majority of Commission Assails Rate Bureau While Smart Defends it

SMART MAKES HOT REPLY

A statement that the railroad commission is in no way connected with the North Dakota rate bureau and a charge that V. E. Smart, rate expert and statistician of the commission, was using the commission's name in connection with it, was made today by C. F. Dupuis, acting chairman, on behalf of himself and Sam Aandahl, majority members of the commission. A reply was made by Mr. Smart that the rate bureau is operated as a thing apart from the commission, that any work he does for it is done at night, and that it is perfectly ethical and legal. He asserted that personal venom prompted the attack.

"The board of railroad commissioners announce that at least two members of the said board, S. J. Aandahl and C. F. Dupuis are in no way connected with the so-called North Dakota Rate Bureau conducted by one V. E. Smart, 703 Eighth street, Bismarck," said the announcement.

"The said V. E. Smart is employed as rate clerk for the Board of Railroad Commissioners by the state and paid a salary of $3,000 per year. The duties for which he is paid this salary by the people of the state with the said commission are in part, to audit, check and handle all over-charge and loss and damage freight claims that are created through transportation, which may come to this commission. The performance of this service is a part of the duties of the board of railroad commissioners for which a rate clerk is employed and paid by the people of the state as provided for in chapter 590 Compiled Laws of 1913 as follows:

"Duties of Railroad Commissioners.—It shall be the duty of the board of railroad commissioners to adjust all claims for overcharges and losses in freight, freight charges or rates, when it has jurisdiction over the carrier where the loss or overcharge took place whenever it is requested to do so by a resident or shipper of this state."

Circular Sent Out. "A circular which was sent through the state to shippers was headed 'North Dakota Rate Bureau, Bismarck, N. D.' which gave as its address 703 Eighth street, Bismarck, Mr. Smart's residence.

The letter said: "Mr. Merchant: Your railroad freight bills represent real money to you. During the last few years the efficiency of railroad agents and clerks has steadily declined. There have been many changes in tariffs and classifications during the period of federation control, and since the return of the roads to the carriers that your local agent and his employees have not kept closely in touch with.

As a result we find numerous overcharges, many of them small in amount, some of them large. . . . This bureau was arranged with Mr. V. E. Smart, rate expert and statistician for the railroad commission, to serve as its consulting expert, which he offers to do without remuneration. Mr. Smart is one of the best posted men on railroad rates generally in North Dakota, and is working in the interest of the public, which gives us the advantage of his advice unbiassed by the railroad. . . . Particular attention is called to the time between the issuance of an order making effective increases in intrastate rates and the supreme court injunction.

To Charge 50 Per Cent. Commissioner Dupuis said that there was nothing about a charge for service in this circular but in another postcard circular, which the merchant is asked to sign on returning an order to seek refund on bills this statement: "I agree to allow a commission of 25 per cent. to defray cost auditing, based upon all overcharges found and 25 per cent. of all amounts recovered."

The commissioner said that it had charged that one of the present railroad commissioners was operating the bureau, and that he denied all connection and warned the public against the use of the commission's name.

Return Nominal. Mr. Smart said that the return from the bureau work was nominal.

There are three other persons interested in it, he said, and he is using his railroad experience outside of his regular hours of work with the commission. He declared that the bills chiefly are small bills, some two or three years old, on which gross overcharges were found. He denied that it was in conflict with the law regarding the duties of the commission, and asserted that the amounts collected were amounts which never would have been referred to the commission or collected by anybody.

The work, he asserted, was tedious and was not especially remunerative. He also added that he had never used any stationery or other articles of the state in the work, except a few common lead pencils, and declared that other commission employees were permitted to make additional money outside of the working hours of the commission. He indignantly denied that any subterfuge was adopted in the bureau work and asserted he would hold anyone responsible who attacked the work of the bureau as under-handed or illegal.

Bismarck, North Dakota, October, 1920.

Florida vs. North Dakota and Canadian Pacific Railway System of Good Farming.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have had vast personal and practical investigation experience of farm lands, farming, crops, grades and marketing conditions in Western Florida from Tallahassee West to Pensacola during 1918 and 1919, especially in DeFuniak Springs, Walton County and "The Vale of Paradise." Also know a great deal of the rest of the State. Florida has many splendid trading and purchasing propositions, has a wonderful climate, but you can't live on climate; go there with ample means and don't try to farm Northern style, adopt the Florida system of successful farming by successful practical farmers and you will get along just fine. The Good North Dakota farming and the Canadian Pacific Ry. Co. system of farming is simply not applicable as a whole in Florida; we will be sort of Traders Information Bureau under our "Get Together System" of operation, so if you desire our special information on any specific section, we can get it for you and connect you up for action. Many questions have been asked of me regarding Florida, that accounts for this advertisement.

Respectfully yours,

D. H. STUHR, General Director

Colds are Catching
EASY TO BREAK RIGHT UP

Don't pass your cold to other members of your family. Don't stay stuffy-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all gripe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness and stiffness. "Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, no quinine.

It's a genuine pleasure to dine here, because there are so many features that make you leave with an anticipation of coming again. The good, the service, the environment, the entertainment, the cool, fresh atmosphere, the courteous attention are all ideal. Such as you'll choose to come to often—such a relief for the wife from the kitchen. That is why so many families eat here.

We make our own pies and cakes, just like Mother makes.

We announce our new Chef, Mr. JOHN B. KETTERER, who has broad experience and has been connected with leading hotels and restaurants.

THROW LEAFLET THEN SCRAMBLE AWAY IN AUTO

Vicious Attack on Bismarck Women is Continued by League Organizers

Circulation of the vicious anonymous leaflet in Bismarck in which an attempt was made to stir up class hatred was continued by Nonpartisan league workers under cover of darkness last evening. After leaving the pamphlet at a home the occupants of a big automobile who made the distribution would run to the automobile and speed away.

The Bismarck attack is similar to the vile pamphlet circulated in Fargo by Nonpartisan league organizers in an attack on a prominent Norwegian Lutheran who is a member of the anti-league organization.

The circulation of an anonymous pamphlet attempting to stir religious prejudice against J. F. T. H. O'Connor is another example of the last-week campaign being conducted by the Townley followers in endeavoring to turn votes on a class hatred platform.

The leaflet circulated in Bismarck is a thinly disguised attack on the women workers for the anti-Townley, anti-Socialist campaign committee. All of these women are voluntarily making part in the campaign in an effort to combat the efforts of the paid league organizers.

"The Terror is Coming" DOG MAY END DIVORCE SUIT

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 28.—Even though he is only a dog, a big Newfoundland canine, the dumb animal's speechless testimony may keep the wife of a local music teacher from obtaining a divorce.

Mrs. Georgiana Skedden, in her suit for separation and maintenance, names Miss Catherine Pike, piano accompanist of her husband, as corespondent, and alleges that at one time while riding in an automobile, Miss Pike encircled her arms around the music teacher.

Now the dog, "Nigger," by name, is Miss Pike's pet. To clear her name from the "other woman" charge, Miss Pike was a witness in the proceedings. She brought her Newfoundland pet with her. She said if her arms were around anyone while on the automobile trip, mentioned in the complaint, they hugged only her dog, which was in the rear seat with the two.

Defense counsel claimed the affection of Miss Pike and her dog was shown while the pianist was on the stand, and which he said substantiated her declaration regarding the alleged misconduct in the automobile, for which Mrs. Skedden's attorney talked

TEACHERS OF STATE RALLY ABOUT CHIEF

Miss Nielson Heartily Commended by A. C. Berg, President of Association

Shame on the political machine that would rob her of her just dues. It is the closing sentence of a statement made today by A. C. Berg of Towler, president of the North Dakota teachers' association relative to the attack made upon Miss Minnie Nielson by Townley, Totten, Nielson and Frazier. The statement is a clean cut explanation of the persecution made by the socialist henchmen of Arthur C. Townley. It follows:

"Townley's kept press, both week ly and daily, has been busy all fall in trying to convince the people that Senate Bill 134, which the school people of the state fought so heartily, did not take away any of Miss Nielson's powers. Such an attempt may possibly get by the people who are not taking the pains to inform themselves on the matter but the 7,000 teachers of the state, who send educational matters are handed now and know how these matters were handled formerly, know those attempts to be deliberate falsehoods.

"One of the latest attempts to fool the public comes from the Townley controlled paper, 'The Peoples Opinion', at Valley City and is labeled 'Miss Nielson and Our Schools'. Townley's 57 varieties in other counties undoubtedly have orders to copy this article so that it will be scattered all over the state before election and as President of the State Teachers' association and as Chairman of the State Teachers' Association Legislative committee, for the last several sessions of the legislature who was personally in charge of looking after school laws at Bismarck, I feel that I cannot let this article go unchallenged.

Bill Condemned
"The State Teachers' association, spent out of its meagre fund $200 to circulate the state asking the people to vote down Senate Bill 134 at the referendum election in June 1919. This was done after the leading educators of the state backed by the opinion of national educators, like United States Commissioner of Education Claxton, Dr. Strayer of Columbia University and Dr. Coffman, now president of Minnesota University who made the educational survey of our state just a year or two before, had condemned the bill as unwise, because it set up two conflicting authorities over school matters in the state.

Political Trickery
"The school people within the state knew that the bill was a piece of political trickery cleverly camouflaged, but intended to rob Miss Nielson of the fruits of her victory at the polls the year before. Such it has proven itself to be. For the state for the history of the state, for the history of any other state teachers go out with a certificate to teach assigned by the state superintendent of public instruction. Instead of finding Miss Nielson's name as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, like in former days we used to find E. J. Taylor's or W. L. Stockwell's, we now find the certificate signed by George E. Totten, Townley's defrocked minister. The certificates are sent out by Mrs. N. C. MacDonald and Miss Nielson has not even a record of who the applicants for teacher's certificates are.

Not Consulted
"In former days certificate matters were considered by the Board of Education of which the responsible member was the state superintendent and the deputy state superintendent was always the secretary of the board. At that time all applications for certificates were sent to the state superintendent and every applicant's record was investigated by that office through the secretary before certificates were issued.

"Now the state superintendent's office is not even consulted. It is foolish to contend that the state superintendent now has anything to say regarding teachers certificates. She is a member of the educational commission, but the other four members political appointees of the governor run the thing to suit themselves.

Prepared Course
"Formerly the state superintendent prepared the course of study. She is still allowed to do so but before the course can even be printed it must be blue pencilled by this political board who may strike out of it or insert into it any thing they please. Formerly the state superintendent used to prepare the questions to be answered by eighth grade graduates. Now she knows nothing about these questions as that is a matter which E. P. Crain through Mrs. N. C. MacDonald looks after teachers examinations are handled in the same way without her knowledge.

"Just recently all the county superintendents of the state received orders from this educational commission not to send their applications for state aid for our schools to Miss Nielson but to them, although the law provides that these applications shall be sent directly to the state superintendent's office. Thus I can go on indefinitely showing where Senate Bill 134 did what it was intended to do—namely, rob Miss Nielson of the powers conferred upon her by the people when they elected her.

Did Not Want Law
"The school people of the state did not want this law which has brought so much confusion into our work and we are asking through an initiative measure that the state superintendent again be placed in charge of school affairs in the state.

"Then Townley's press raises the question of state uniformity of text books. The North Dakota Teachers' association after an investigation lasting over a year unanimously went on record several years ago as opposed to state uniformity of text books. Miss Nielson approved of that action then and authorized me to state that she has not changed her mind. She does not want state uniformity of text books and there will be none while she is state superintendent if she can help it.

Deceiving People
"The initiative measure does not give the state superintendent the power to select text books for the state and Townley's papers are just trying to make political capital when they try to put such a construction upon it.

"Miss Nielson has been bounded, maligned, abused and slandered by Townley's kept press ever since she was elected. Under it all she has kept her temper and has gone ahead working conscientiously to give our boys and girls on farms as well as in towns, an opportunity for a good education. She proved her worth in Barnes County while county superintendent there for twelve years and the splendid schools there will always stand as a proud monument to her efforts. She has proven her worth again as state superintendent—energetic, tireless, resourceful, enthusiastic, a worthy leader of the educational forces of the state. Shame on the political machine that would rob her of her just dues.

(Signed) A. C. BERG, Pres. N. D. State Teachers' Assn. Towler, N. D., Oct. 25, 1920.

Woman Thinks She is Privileged to Talk

"If anyone ever had a miserable stomach I surely had. It was growing worse, too, all the time. Had severe pains and attacks every ten days or two weeks and had to call a doctor, who could only relieve me for short while. Here Is a Fine Laxative For a Little Baby

Millions of Mothers find Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for infants

WHAT young mother has not often asked herself the question, "What is the best thing I can give my baby for constipation?" It is a very important question, as constipation is the basis of most ills of infancy and childhood.

Give half a teaspoonful of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. You can obtain it at any drug store under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild, gentle medicine that children willingly take, and a bottle that costs only sixty cents is enough to last an average family several months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been used by millions of mothers, for the prescription has been sold in drug stores for thirty years. It is the same prescription Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is now in his 82nd year, used in his extensive practice for half a century. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Last year eight million bottles were bought in drug stores, and you can make no mistake in giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to your baby.

TRY IT FREE
Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 313 Washington St., Monroeville, Illinois. Everybody knows and then sends a laxative, and it is well to know the best. WRITE ME TODAY.

VISITOR FROM JAPAN

Miss Alice Monk, North Dakota's Presbyterian Missionary to Japan was a distinguished visitor in town during Wednesday and Thursday of the week. Complimentary to her state among us Mrs. William Langer was hosted at a silver tea in her home at 122 Avenue A on Thursday, when about seventy-five women called between the hours of three and six to greet the visitor and listen to her intensely interesting experiences in the Orient. During the visiting hours Mrs. Richard A. Tracy and Mrs. Harry A. Stegner sang and there were piano numbers by Mrs. John Hughes. Mrs. H. C. Postlethwaite entertained at a one o'clock luncheon for Miss Monk at the Manse, 16 Avenue B on Wednesday. She was the house guest of Mrs. Harry Stegner during her stay in Bismarck. Miss Monk left on Thursday evening for Mandan and other points in the western part of the state.

READY TO PLAY

A wholesome spirit of play is abroad in the city upon the approach of fall. Lowen and various home events are planned, such as small dinners, theatre parties to hear the Welch Singers in the Presbyterian church, etc. but the whole community expect to meet and mingle in the one big community festa to be put on in the early part of the evening by the Town Criers.

The children are breathlessly excited over the prospect of the glorious parade when all the funny people who have been hiding away through the busy summer are coming out to make Halloween on the streets before going to the Auditorium for the play hour for everybody. Every minute will be precious before it is time for little people to scamper home and leave the grown-ups to find the various other diversions planned for the evening.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

A Young People's Society has been organized in connection with St. George's church. Others who are not members of the church may join and are invited to do so. An invitation social and dance in the Parish house next Wednesday night will start the winter activities. It is planned to have hikes, snowshoe tramps, lectures and social gatherings through the winter months. The membership fee is 25 cents per month. Officers are: president, Mrs. T. DeWurst; secretary, Mrs. Pollard; and treasurer, Miss L. Hollenworth.

"Mousetray" and the one-act play "The Rector," by Crothers, were interspersed with vocal solos by the Misses Silseth, Hope, Paulson and Mr. Griffin. The program was well received by an audience that comfortably filled the hall. The club intends to appear in the near future at New Salem and Wilton, and plans are already being formulated for the local spring appearance, when a play more pretentious than any hitherto attempted will be given.

HOSTESSES AT TEA

Mrs. James Algeo and Mrs. Anna Gradin were hostesses at a Halloween silver tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gradin to Fort Lincoln chapter, American War Mothers. A large pumpkin served as a money box into which were dropped $2.15. About 30 ladies were present. Refreshments were served and the ladies were pleased with the result of their first tea.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The women's auxiliary of Lloyd Spetz post, American Legion, held a well-attended meeting at Elk's hall Thursday evening. Plans are under way for an elaborate social meeting for the legion and auxiliary in the near future.

S. S. S. CLUB MEETING

The S. S. S. club met Wednesday with Nana Cook. Several musical numbers were rendered, after which light refreshments were served. The club will meet next week with Gladys Vesperman.

MRS. C. W. PAULSON HOME

Mrs. Carl W. Paulson and daughter Justine returned on Wednesday from Davenport, Iowa, where they have been since closing their summer home at Green Lake, Minn. Mrs. Paulson is reported as recovering nicely from a serious illness. The family are at the Grand Pacific hotel for the present.

SUPPORT THE LIBRARY
Bismarck should pack the Presbyterian church Saturday evening for the Welsh singers. This is a musical event as of much importance of its kind as the Symphony orchestra. A few years ago the Welsh singers played to capacity at the Auditorium. This year, however, owing to the short time the committee had to prepare for the event, it was impossible to canvass the city.
The Welsh singers are coming here to appear in a benefit concert for the Bismarck Public Library, an institution worthy of the most loyal support. More money for the purchase of new books is needed than can be secured through the city budget. Besides hearing an excellent program, the people of Bismarck will be assisting in a good cause by attending the concert.
Show the Bismarck spirit Saturday evening and give the Welsh singers a rousing reception.

PUNCH THE BAG
A noted English physician, who has specialized in the treatment of nervous diseases, believes liberal and frequent doses of the punching bag would do good.
This wise doctor advises nervous patients to get rid of temper by hitting the bag, rather than beating up the wife, slapping the child, or kicking the cat. It is a fine idea! Makes for more pleasant home atmosphere, and does more toward the building up of appetite and physical strength than the old-fashioned method of blackening another's eye, or breaking out a few teeth.
If the dinner is not done on time, or underdone, or overdone, don't "jaw" at the cook; punch the bag. If Willie's noise gets the better of your nerves, punch the bag. If house bills are too high, don't blame the wife; punch the bag. Install a portable punching bag in the home. Then when the family notes the first rise of temper they may roll the punching apparatus into the room and leave you alone with it.
It is, as the doctor asserts, splendid for the health—especially the health of the family.

THE WAFFLE RECORD
John Paul Jones placed himself high upon the roll of fame by his gallant conduct upon the high seas. That great admiral gave considerable publicity to the name of Jones in this country, and others, not to make mention of the oceans over which he lorded it. It became almost second nature to thing of glorious naval exploits when one thought of John Paul Jones.
But he passed away, and for long years there was a lack of highly conspicuous Joneses sailing o'er the briny deep.
Then along comes Paul Francis Jones, a marine. This Paul Jones now is the pride of those who love the daring deed, who cheer the lion-hearted, and who pin medals on the brave.
What? You mean to say that you have not heard of the wonderful record achieved by this Paul Jones? Why, man alive, don't you know that this namesake of the famous Paul Jones ate 26 1-2 waffles in 30 minutes? He did! Honest to goodness, he did! That's why the cheering.
Other marines, and sailors, too, have set records in firing rifle balls and cannon balls; they have done out-of-the-ordinary things in the matter of facing enemy fire and all that, but never before in the history of the U. S. A. has any marine eaten 26 1-2 waffles in 30 minutes.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS
It is now many years since two sets of manners toward women became the conventional thing with men. Ever since woman invaded man's hereditary kingdom of business, the world has been conscious of an accelerated slipping away of those little formalities which were the "outward and visible sign" of an inner reverence for nature's most beautiful fact—that women is the giver of the greatest of all gifts, life.
Thinking men and women alike have deplored this tendency, not for the sake of the personal deference accorded women, but because of the realization that all conventions, even the mere manners of social usage, are the outgrowth of those fundamentals upon which civilization rests.
Women have long since observed, smiled over and passed by such fine distinctions as "hats off" in department store and hotel elevators and hats on in elevators of office buildings. But the rapidity with which the bars are being let down in more serious ways by the younger business generation, is not a thing to smile over. Women executives, instinctively feminine, know this.
Nevertheless they are smiling; smiling with a studied politeness that has but one intent, and that is the re-establishment of a single code of manners. They are deliberately forcing, by according men in business the same courtesy they receive from men socially, a gradual return of those outward signs which mean an inner protective chivalry for "the greatest gift."

THE NEW RUSSIA
When Bolshevism falls in Russia, one of four transition periods will follow. The Soviet system may be overthrown and still leave Lenin, Trotsky and their chief subordinates in power. If the Soviet leaders become convinced the tide is running overwhelmingly against them, they may invite the anti-Bolsheviks into the government to form a coalition ministry. This would be orderly evolution.
If the Bolsheviks are expelled from power, progressive, orderly development would still result if the opposition parties could immediately take over the government! To do, this the revolution would have to be a carefully organized affair.
If Bolshevism falls because of a sudden exasperation of the populace, driven to unbearable frenzy through Soviet incompetence, a state of complete anarchy may follow with excesses more evil than those of the French Revolution.
Should the overthrow of the Bolsheviks result from sheer inanition, government would cease to operate nationally and would become strictly local. Russia would become a vast series of village, town and city administrations, each doing as it liked.
Eventually, however, whether anarchy reigns for a time or national government vanishes, Russia will find herself. A great democracy is destined to occupy that part of the earth. What immediately follows Bolshevism will be only a stage in the evolutionary process.

ADVICE, OLD AND NEW
"Hitch your wagon to a star" was good advice—maybe when it first was handed out by the Amalgamation Order of Wise Men a century or so ago.
But, according to Mrs. Charlie Chaplin's mother-in-law, it is mighty poor advice now. Indeed, so little does she think of it that she urges this instead:
"Don't hitch your wagon to a star."
Meaning thereby that young women looking forward toward matrimony had better marry a young man at the bottom of fame's ladder, then one who is drawing a million a year by way of recompense for his ability to wear shoes nobody else would wear, and to throw away custard pies everybody else would like to eat.

After all, there's something admirable about X in the new league.
Maybe Ban Johnson's afraid there's an Article a man so stubborn he never admits he's wrong.

A one-armed man has this advantage: He can't smash his thumb while hammering a nail.

Supposing the voters along about November 2 should get this strike germ that is floating around.

Philip Everist of Sioux City, aged two, has been selected as Iowa's perfect baby, but you ought to hear what the neighboring mothers say!

TRUTH ABOUT THE GRAIN MARKET
The statement in yesterday's Journal by F. L. Gates, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, that there is no unfair manipulation of grain prices, but that the bumper Canadian wheat crop, which has been dumped on the American market, is responsible for the slump in wheat prices, is worthy of consideration by men seeking the truth.
Mr. Gates says that the war prices of wheat was in existence early in this month, and that the price did not drop until Canadian wheat came in. This is not due to gambling but to a condition over which no one but the Wilson Administration at Washington has any control.
If the Wilson administration had done the proper thing and taken steps to keep the Canadian wheat out of the country until the American farmers had disposed of their crop at the fair prices, there would have been no slump.
And Nonpartisan legislation can do nothing to remedy a condition like this. As a matter of fact, the price dropped, especially in this state, while the Nonpartisans are in power and they appear helpless to do anything that will bring the price back.

The Nonpartisan leaders, on the other hand, could have saved the farmers of North Dakota much money on wheat if they did not go to all the trouble to tell the farmers to hold their wheat until the price went up. Had the Nonpartisan managers taken the trouble to study the world wheat market, especially the Canadian crop, they have told the farmers that wheat will be lower in price and that the thing would be to sell while the price is high.

Many of the farmers followed the advice of the Nonpartisans and lost, while the wise ones who saw the hand writing on the wall, and knew the real conditions sold their wheat at a good price.
The Nonpartisans gambled on a bad guess and lost—but the farmers have to pay the ante.—Devils Lake Journal.

wants your boy!

Following is a literal translation of the French text of what President Wilson promised,—
"If the world finds itself troubled anew, if the conditions which we regard as fundamental are again drawn into question, the guaranty which is given to you will mean that the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their navy."

The Experiences Of Hiram Wise
INTRODUCTION
"Hiram Wise" is a farmer of the old school who believes in the "emancipation of humanity." Being a forward looking man, he is one of the first to join the Nonpartisan league when its organizers visited his community. While his varied experiences are told in story form, practically every one of them has been duplicated in real life.
"Bobs" speech has been written in dialect in order to carry out the general idea. It is "Hiram" who is doing the talking, telling the reader of his experiences with the Nonpartisan league in emancipating North Dakota.

THE NONPARTISAN LEAGUE— IS IT A MENACE OF A BENEFIT
(By a Farmer's Wife)
Time after time the papers representing the nonpartisan league have condemned employers for intimidating their employees into voting a certain ticket, or lose their jobs. Undoubtedly a great deal of this has been going on in the past, and is still continuing, and the league papers are right in condemning it as un-American. But what shall we say when the president of the organization these papers represent comes out in public agitation against the business men by telling them that if they, by their vote, cause the league defeat he (Townley) will return after election and see that every one of them are forced out of business—that he will see to it that the towns refuse to trade with them and like they have brought it upon themselves by their interference and meddling with things which don't concern them as far as the affairs of the state and the way they are conducted do not vitally concern every one of us.
What do the league papers call this? A challenge, a threat, or what? To me it looks like coercion of the very worst kind!
Every person should be allowed to exercise a free conscience at the polls. Unless they have this right, the name of freedom is nothing but an idle boast, and our liberty is a sorry mockery indeed. For our vested rights are all dependent on the ballot box. By our vote we say how our country shall be governed, and by whom—and no one, be he millionaire or pauper should be allowed to dictate as to how we shall vote—on the promise of swift retribution if we fail to obey his mandates!
The question naturally arises as to whether the farmers would obey their chief—for without their support he would be powerless to accomplish his ends.
Hiram Bright
To them, Townley is a demi-God, whose commands are as a law unto themselves. No matter how great a personal sacrifice these laws would be carried into effect. Haven't I seen friendships shattered and homes broken up because of political belief? Haven't I seen farmers, good honest American citizens, compelled to either join the league or move on account of a boycott against them at harvest and threshing time.
What, then, should the business men do? Vote to uphold Townley and the present administration, or exercise their vote as free American citizens—with the sword of Damocles hanging over their heads in the shape of a boycott? My friends that such conditions exist is a shame and disgrace to our state. Personally, I'd take a chance—and vote as my conscience dictated—but I'd have my trunk packed while doing it, just the same.
In order to get a clear insight as to just how such things actually can be existing in this 20th century, pick up any of the league papers, especially the chief offender "The Courier News." What do you see? Here is one excerpt from a recent issue.
"The government as at present administered exists solely for big business."
Here is another.
"Do not vote for any of the I. V. A. K. men they are the candidates of the grain aristocracy."
If a man seeking election differs from the self-appointed judges of another man's morality, Townley is a God and the date of the grain calendar is his birthday.
Wouldn't you say that?

PEOPLE'S FORUM
"WHEN THE GODS WISH TO DESTROY THEIR FIRST MAKE MAD."
Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 25.
Editor Tribune:
The rage, despair and terror of impending defeat, has brought out into the open the true character of A. C. Townley, and Townleyism, failing to find one flaw in Mr. O'Connor's character or reputation upon which to attack him, they resort to the lowest, the dirtiest, the most degraded of all filthy political tricks, and attack him because of his religion.
I do not know what Mr. O'Connor's religion is. I do not know which road Mr. O'Connor has chosen to lead him on to heaven. I presume the path that he is following was shown him by his mother, and if he has ever followed the teachings of his mother they will not go very far for the candidates of the grain aristocracy.
I would call to the attention of these self-appointed judges of another man's morality, these self-righteous hypocrites, these arrogant would-be usurpers of the prerogative of the Almighty, this man seeking election differs from the self-appointed judges of another man's morality, Townley is a God and the date of the grain calendar is his birthday.

Cuts, Burns
Hiram's Wizard Oil a Safe First Aid Treatment
How often lockjaw, blood poisoning, the loss of an arm or leg, or sometimes even life itself, results from the neglect of a burn or little cut! Hiram's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective first aid treatment. It is a powerful antiseptic and promptly applied to wounds of this kind will lessen the danger of blood poisoning. Keep it handy.
"Like a pack of starving wolves who follow the huntman's trail, yet fear to attack him because of the weapon he carries, these men hate and fear this noble woman."

If the present administration of the affairs of the state of North Dakota, had conserved the interests of its citizens, as J. F. T. O'Connor has served his God and his State, there would be no call for a change.
Mr. O'Connor's religion did not teach him to place in the hands of the school children of this state, the filthy, immoral writings of Ellen Key's, the blasphemous works of Upton Sinclair, the Socialistic doctrine of Karl Marx, Walter Thomas Mills, et al.; it did not teach him to work and pray for the release from a most just and deserved punishment that loathsome creature, that disgrace to her sex, Kate Richards O'Hare, who classed as a brood sows the mothers of thirty thousand loyal sons of North Dakota, it does not teach him to deny to the citizens of this state an accounting of their own moneys, it has not taught him to use public funds for private political propaganda, it has not taught him to threaten citizens with financial ruin, and to drive them out of the state if they did not vote for him, it has not caused him to call a majority of the voters of this state undesirable citizens because they differ with him politically, it has not taught him to call upon un-frocked priests and very ex-ministers for support, it has not made him a bankrupt convict, as A. C. Townley is today, bankrupt alike in purse, honor, manhood and loyalty, a man under jail sentence for seditious acts against his country, while that country was in a death struggle to keep Old Glory, the emblem of Liberty and Honor from being trailed in the dust.
If you want the state of North Dakota to be governed for two years more by this bankrupt through his subservient tools, vote for the Townley ticket, which stands for Socialism, Anarchy, Free Love, I. W. W.-ism, Bolshevism and Ruth.

But, if you want the state governed by Honesty, Fair Play, Equal Rights for all citizens, in a word by Americanism, vote for J. F. T. O'Connor, a man wearing no political boss's collar, a man with no alien grafter's lash over him. A man you can X-ray from every angle finding nothing but honesty and one hundred per cent Americanism.
On the night of November 2, when A. C. Townley is driven back to Minnesota to serve his jail sentence, a discredited, disgraced and defeated boss, the people of North Dakota, from the Red River to the Golden Valley, from the Canadian line to South Dakota, will raise one great shout of SH: SEMPER TYRANNUS.

SATURDAY GAME IN BIG TEN TO DECIDE POWERS

Championship Chances May Be Made or Blighted in College Fields

GOPHERS MEET ILLINOIS

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 29.—Big Ten and Minnesota college conference football teams stretched their muscles today as the finishing touch in preparation for their games tomorrow, which in the majority of cases will either boost or blight championship chances. The bears and bulls have been working overtime on the dope sheets during the past weeks and coaches of the several teams are the only ones who really know what men are going to start in tomorrow's games. The University of Minnesota has been hard hit by injuries, but with an open date last week it is believed all the stars who have been on the hospital list will be in shape to start. Illinois, Ohio State, and Chicago, all undefeated, have their first string men in good shape.

In the Minnesota conference, Hamline has been the hardest hit by injuries. St. Thomas, Hamline's opponent tomorrow, is in good shape. Reports from Carleton indicate that both the Northfield teams, Carleton and St. Olaf, are in prime shape for their annual argument. The past week has been devoted to elimination of rough spots that showed in last Saturday's games.

Goes to Suckers.
The Michigan-Illinois game, which went to the Suckers by a one point margin, is expected to be a point in fact to be used in urging the elimination of the kick from touchdown. Both teams came through the game without serious injuries to players and are expected to be in top form for tomorrow's games.

The Minnesota-Illinois game at Urbana this week will virtually decide Illinois' championship chances. Ed Rubin, Minnesota fullback, is expected to be in first class shape for the first time since he was hurt in the North Dakota game. Arnold Oss, Minnesota's flashy back, who has been virtually a loss to the team during the entire season, may be in Saturday's game. A pulled tendon, dating back to last spring's track season, is giving the back much trouble. A win for Minnesota would be a big set-back for the Illinois titular ambitions.

Wins Over Wisconsin.
At Chicago, Ohio State, with a record of 10-0-1, won the last few moments of play last Saturday, and undefeated, will play Chicago, another undefeated championship contender. Ohio State won over the strong Wisconsin team as a crushing surprise to the Wisconsin followers, but did not put the Badgers out for the count. Chicago virtually eliminated the Iowa aspirants with a 10-0 victory. Michigan and Tulane will battle Saturday in a non-conference game. Iowa will have a week off in preparation for the Northwestern game the following Saturday, while Northwestern and Indiana will battle at Indianapolis.

Three undefeated contenders for the Minnesota state college championship emerged from Saturday's battles. Macalester, St. Thomas and Carleton have not been defeated in conference games, while St. Olaf, Hamline and Gustavus Adolphus have suffered one or more defeats.

Cat and Dog Affair.
From the spectator's standpoint, the Macalester-St. Olaf game was everything that could be desired. The game was a cat and dog affair, with both teams showing flashes of all kinds of football, both good and bad. Macalester showed the most driving power in offense, which was responsible for its 20-14 victory. Both teams showed lapses in defensive play which coaches think they have corrected this week.

Carleton, playing the college to a 7-0 tie last week, displayed strength in all departments, giving its supporters championship visions.

Both Hamline and St. Thomas, the only college teams to be in action in St. Paul tomorrow, came through last week's games without serious injury. St. Thomas put the finishing touches on Gustavus Adolphus' championship chances, while Hamline took a lesson from the University of North Dakota, losing by a 28-6 score.

Strong Offense.
St. Thomas showed a strong offense in the 40-0 win over Gustavus Adolphus while Hamline's offense and defense suffered by comparison with that of the North Dakota team.

Out of North Dakota the state chamionship will be virtually decided by Saturday's game between the University of North Dakota and the North Dakota Aggies. The Aggies were quiet last week while the University was romping over Hamline.

BISMARCK AND MANDAN CLASH
ON GRIDIRON

Bismarck and Mandan high schools will meet on the Mandan gridiron Saturday afternoon. The two teams tied in their first game here in Bismarck, and both teams will make a strenuous effort to win tomorrow. The local club will go over to Mandan on No. 7, leaving at 2:55 p. m. The game will start at 3:30 Mandan time (3:30 Bismarck time) and persons who go over on No. 7 will have ample time to get to the game. The local team has been working hard all week and the coaches are confident of victory.

If Bismarck wins, and if Valley City beats Jamestown, Valley City and Bismarck will play here a week from tomorrow. Bismarck also is trying to arrange a game with Jamestown, to be played here election afternoon.

RECIPES OF OUR PIONEER MOTHERS

for the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has gone abroad from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A REPUBLICAN YEAR—WHY?

BY GEORGE ADE.

It has been known at all times since last June that our next President will be Warren G. Harding. The forecasters have spoken confidently and their cocksureness has not been inspired by a belief in the dark presence of any "slush fund" or a mere confidence in the managerial alertness of Will Hays or a conviction that the American people are opposed to getting tied into a hard knot with the intricate interior politics of Europe.

No—the man who has been standing on the side lines and keeping his head cool has been serenely assured all the time that the Republicans are going to win hands down this year because they have had a very brilliant man working in their behalf for the last four years or more, and he has not overlooked one opportunity to improve their chances. I refer to Dr. Wilson, formerly of Princeton.

He has worn down his audience by converting the National Hymn into a tenor solo, done with a foreign accent, even the people who purchased librettos could not tell what he was singing about most of the time.

They have had enough of the one man show and are giving their patronage to a star performer who is not afraid to carry a strong supporting company.

The American people have become weary of looking up at a rancid superman surrounded by a fog and messenger boys.

The Republican victory is impending not because of opposition to the League of Nations, but because men and women wish to register their deep disgust by voting against the party of which Mr. Wilson has been the figurehead and the headquarters and the hindquarters through many months of suffering.

All the voters who are not extreme Democrats by wilful force of habit are going to take a final punch at the administration which has played "tag" and "drop the handkerchief" and "ring around the rosy" with the most sacred and sincere convictions of the American people.

The home folks are seeing a lot of things in perspective, now that they couldn't see through the smoke and dust of a world war in 1916.

They see (even the misguided farmers of Kansas and Nebraska who thought that the price of wheat was the paramount issue in 1916) that the refusal of Mr. Wilson and his boy choir to get ready for the inevitable conflict with Germany was stupidly colossal and almost unbelievable.

Americans who have memories and reasoning faculties and the ability to make fair deductions know now, in the light of our revelations, that when Mr. Wilson, all during 1916, said that he had kept us out of war and WOULD keep us out of war, he knew that he had to resent the insults of Germany or else placard ourselves as cravens and weaklings. He knew, because he had the evidence in the pigeon-holes of his desk.

The thousands of citizens who voted for Mr. Wilson because they thought it would be a nice thing to keep out of war and keep on making money, did not know of that damning and piled up evidence of Germany's perfidy. Mr. Wilson concealed the facts brought to him by the Secret Service, and Colonel House and Mr. Gerard and numerous other emissaries and continued to administer the chloroform. He seemed to proceed upon the theory that if a man comes into a house and makes a criminal assault on your daughter, no harm is done unless the neighbors happen to hear it.

During that long wait, while we were under sentence of war, and trying to hide the truth from ourselves, Mr. Wilson took no counsel from the strong men of the nation. He had hashed himself into the belief that he was the only strong man in the nation.

Only the mandolin players were admitted to the royal presence. The Creels and Bakers and Josephuses knelt before him and burned incense and sang their sexless love songs.

That pre-war period now lingers in the memory as a harrowing night-mare. One day the White House would be bleating like a lamb and the next day it would be roaring like a lion.

Finally we kicked into the war. Do you remember that ringing proclamation as to "making the world safe for democracy." If so, can you remember a little farther back, say to January 1917, when our President advised all of the fighting nations to lay down their arms and accept "peace without victory."

If the world had to be made safe for democracy in April, why had any one favored letting democracy go to smash in the preceding January?

These are questions that people are now asking themselves and they are questions that the Biographer and Historian will have to answer.

When a rhetorician starts to buzz, he is apt to buzz in a good many keys before he gets through.

We didn't go into the war to make the world safe for anything. We went in because we had been slapped and kicked until we either had to fight or go hide in the cellar. After we went in, every one hoped, of course, that the war would result in a grand cleanup or a settlement which would be a prelude to many years of peace.

Although Mr. Wilson seemed to regard the war as an allegorical tableau of which he was the central figure, it is now a matter of record that the brunt of the war work was cheerfully assumed by men who had previously been mistrusted by Mr. Wilson and who, at the present writing, are not to be classed as his defenders. The highest compliment that anyone can pay the army and the navy is to say that they continued to function in spite of Newton D. Baker and Josephus Daniels.

The big men took orders from the little men, being somewhat sustained by a sense of humor. Those who could serve did so. Theodore Roosevelt and Leonard Wood were excluded from service, to the everlasting shame of a narrow minded autocrat.

You may remember in 1918 it was proclaimed from the White House that voting the Democratic ticket would be regarded at headquarters as an evidence of loyalty. That supremely idiotic letter is still one of the reasons why the Democrats are going to be snowed under this fall.

But the bulk of the burning resentment against Wilsonism has been engendered since the signing of the armistice.

We were emerging, dazed, from the agonies and overwork of a great war. A hundred vexing domestic problems confronted the powers at Washington. In every mind there was the desire for an immediate and effective peace and a right about movement toward normal conditions. Every American who had been a student of events probably took it for granted that the President would rise above partisan considerations and send to the Peace Conference a group of men experienced in statecraft, diplomacy and international law.

Suppose he had fulfilled the same expectations of his countrymen. Suppose he had named a non-partisan delegation consisting of Col. House, Mr. Lansing, Mr. Gerard, Elihu Root, David Jayne Hill and Charles E. Hughes and entrusted to them all the work of settling with Germany and coming to some international agreement as to future arbitrations and enforcements? Does any one doubt that these men, unhampered by instructions, would have protected America to the limit? The war would now be in the past tense and some sort of a League would be in operation. Instead of being despised and distrusted by our European neighbors we would be working in harmony with them for the restoration of a battered continent.

The American people did not want Mr. Wilson to pick up and go to Europe. That was where he and his party lost out, definitely, with the quiet, level-headed, meditative voters. Mr. Wilson did a silly thing in a most imperial manner—special ships and huge retinues and great expenditures and even those who had followed him around the circus lot through five years of acrobatics began to throw up their hands.

He went to Europe with a "mandate." Before going he had consulted with no one except the pale menials who brought flowers to him every morning. He and his policies had just been repudiated by an overwhelming majority at an election which had been made a test contest at his own request. In any other country in the world the adverse vote would have retired him to private life. It never feazed the Doctor. He dusted himself off and started to Europe with a "mandate." It reads like "Alice in Wonderland," doesn't it?

In every capital of Europe there was a glorified street carnival and on the highest platform with the spot-light turned on him, was our beloved President, blowing bubbles. He was going to Santa Claus the whole universe without any assistance whatsoever.

He scattered promises with both hands and you know the sequel. He brought home a covenant which up to the time it was laid before the Senate, had been inspected and approved by only one of the 105,000,000 people who had a right to be interested in the contents.

He said to the United States of America, "Sign here," and the U. S. A. said, "Wait a minute," and the trouble started.

We are still at war with Germany, technically. The covenant is out in the cold, with winter coming on. Our flag is regarded by our late allies as a symbol of double-dealing. All because the stiff-necked egotism of one man had stood in the way of a compromise settlement which would have been quite acceptable to Europe.

For fifty years the Democrats have insisted that the party in power must stand or fall by the acts of the administration. They cannot reverse the ruling this year. The Republicans are going to win because our whole country is saturated with disapproval of Wilsonism. The Democrats, who in past years, organized the States, put up the money and made the speeches, are now sitting back, apathetic, secretly pulling for Harding. They are delighted to learn that he who contributes to a campaign fund is a near criminal. In the meantime Mr. Cox, vociferously avoiding the issue of Wilsonism, has succeeded in proving that if the Republicans are lucky they will get enough money to pay their legitimate expenses.

W. M. WEIGEL, of Seattle, who says he had no idea anything on earth could do for him what Tanlac has done. Declares he has gained 50 pounds and that his health has been completely restored.

"I had no idea that anything on earth could do for me what Tanlac has done, and I just feel like telling everybody I see about this wonderful medicine," said Wm. Weigel, 2802 Third Ave., Seattle, Wash., with the widely-known New Washington Hotel.

"When I began taking Tanlac," continued Mr. Weigel, "my condition was so rundown that I could not work. I was never hungry, and my stomach was so disordered that the little I forced myself to eat disagreed with me. My kidneys bothered me, and the pains across my back were so severe that when I tried to bend over and straighten up again it would nearly kill me. I had splitting headaches and such dizzy spells at times I would almost topple over. Then to make matters worse, I began to suffer with rheumatism in my legs. I was nervous, weak and restless, was rapidly losing weight and strength and, seemed to be going down hill every day."

"I began to improve after the first few doses of Tanlac. I seemed to feel better each day as I continued the treatment. In a few weeks I was like a brand-new man. Now, I have a big appetite, eat anything I want, enjoy every mouthful and I don't suffer in the least afterwards. I sleep like a child every night and feel just fine on arising in the morning. I haven't a pain about me, my strength has been wonderfully increased and I have actually gained thirty pounds. 'If anybody doubts this statement, just tell them to see me and I will give them the names of some of my friends who will verify every word of it.'"

Tanlac is sold in Bismarck by Jos. Brestow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrette, in Wing by H. P. H. man and in Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co. (Advt.)

TAXIS HAVE LEAN FARE IN BERLIN

Berlin, Oct. 29.—Taxicab and droschky drivers in Berlin, as numerous now as before the war, have so little to do that many of them stand all day at their places without a single fare. They have increased their prices 10 to 15 times the old rate but the cost of living has kept pace with the increase and some of them are in abject poverty. There are a few smart equipages, the most of their vehicles present a battered, forlorn aspect.

A droschky driver, whose tall hat was dirty and broken and whose clothes were patched in many places, perched up eagerly at the prospect of a fare but when he discovered only a questioner lapsed into his customary lethargy.

"I've had only three fares in two days and have not earned enough to feed my horse," he said.

"Before the war we were very busy. People then went pleasure riding, and always called a cab to go to their offices. Now the Germans cannot afford it and the majority of the foreigners have their own automobiles."

On other side of the parkway hundreds of taxicabs and droschkies are parked, waiting for customers. They

MILLERAND IS "TEDDY" OF FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 29.—President Millerand greatly resembles physically the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. He has the same broad chest, stout, thick-set stature, the twinkling blue eyes look searching at one through thick lenses; the same large head, strong powerful neck; the same capacity for hard work.

At Versailles, after Millerand had been officially invested with the powers of President of the French Republic, the correspondent of The Associated Press was one of a large group of newspaper men with whom the President shook hands.

"How do you feel, Mr. President?" the correspondent asked.

"Splendid!" Millerand fairly shouted. Somehow, the word sounded very much like one heard years ago: "Bully."

Paris society women send their pet dogs to school, where they are taught manners.

Fireproof barrels, made from sugar mill refuse, have been invented in Hawaii.

For every 1000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years there are in France 1230 women, in England 1176, in Italy 1228, in Germany 1310 and in Austria-Hungary 1230.

The Choice Prizes of Life Are Won By the Healthy and Strong

The weak, soft, flabby-muscle, those who are deficient in vigor and vital force—have over had together the habit of being physically shoddy by their stronger rivals. A clear, bright complexion, bright eyes, hardened muscles, and a well-knit, together body, of elastic step and swing, constitute a trump card in any game—whether of love or business.

If you feel that you are out of shape, lacking the stamina to stand up and climb your own, don't delay another day commencing to take
